SUCCESSFUL PROMOTION BY MODERN SALES

With a novel sales idea, advertised in the September 19th Presto Press, Ray and Ward Shurtleff of Modern Sales Co., Inc. of Fairhaven created a dynamic interest in their product. This resulted in a highly successful sale of new appliances. A truckload purchase of name brand appliances permitted sale prices on the new units. Outside the store, the parked truck and the numerous large appliance cartons provided a traffic stopping display of great interest. This combination of newspaper advertising, visual display outside the store, and mass display inside the store plus genuine savings - sold the merchandise.

Sales can be stimulated by the use of imagination and by offering genuine value. We think Modern Sales has proved it.

JUVENILE GRANGERS MEET

The meeting of the Mattapoisett Juvenile Grange was held Friday evening, September 27th, at the Grange Hall with the Master, Nancy Corcoran, presiding.

Joseph Bradford, Master of Sippican Pomona, was an honored guest.

The Juvenile degree was conferred on Joseph Costa, Gardner Knight and Ellie Heuberger. There are several applications to be voted on.

Announcement was made by Mrs. Lemuel Le Baron, who served as matron, of the 1958 Installation of officers on Sunday afternoon, October 6th, at 2:30 in the Grange Hall. The Installing Suite from Watuppa Juvenile will do the honors.

Mrs. Barbara Heuberger, Matron of the Juvenile Grange, was reported ill.

Projects completed by the children were brought in as well as get well cards signed and addressed to Andrew Backus of Marion, who is a patient in a Boston Hospital.

During the Lecturers hour Kathy and Bobby Sylvia gave a talk on their trip to California.

Refreshments were served by Richard and David Rawcliffe.

Any other girl or boy wishing to join the Juvenile Grange should get their applications in right away. Contact Mrs. Heuberger for information.

Tin Pan Alley in New York is the street famous for musical publishers. It was the noise of many pianos being played at once that gave the street its name.

OLD COVERED BRIDGE

Cover sketch by Donald Jason of a covered bridge. In this fall season when we have a chance to get away, it's usually to the mountains. The magnificent fall foliage is an unforgettable sight in Northern New England. For covered bridges against this colorful background there is only one place left and that is the State of Vermont.

CRUELTY AND KINDNESS BESIDE A ROAD

This past week a car stopped along a road in Rochester. The occupants carried three tiny kittens to the edge of the road, put them down and drove off. Just by chance the incident was seen by a lady who investigated and found the one tiger and two black kittens, where they had been abandoned. They were just old enough to know how to drink from a dish and had been left to their fate beside a busy road. The lady, who took them in, found them homes with people who like animals. So they weren't run over and they didn't starve and they now have homes with human beings.

SURPRISE PARTY

May 14th. Thursday the wind blows a gale all day. We don't make sail. The weather is as cold as winter. Ice makes in fresh water the most of the day. We saw 2 right whale. We find our ---- is short. In consequence we have no fire.

May 15th. Friday we have some sun and moderate gales from West. At night the wind hauls to the southward. We saw one right whale and lowered for him but he showed no chance to strike.

May 16th. Saturday begins with the wind S S E and a snowstorm. At daylight it turns into rain and hail with a gale. We saw a right whale and lowered for him. There was so much wind and sea that the boats could hardly get about. While the boats were off another whale came up near by. We did not fasten to any. The wind increases and at 8 A.M. we take in sail. At noon the wind veers round S W with thick fog and a gale. No observation.

May 17th. Sunday the wind blows a gale from W with some verry weakly looking sunshine. We saw several whales blow. At 6 P.M. we lowered for a whale. There was a verry heavy sea on and we did not get nigh him. More moderate at night.

May 18th. Monday begins with light airs from W and calm till 8 A.M. Then we have moderate gales from E N E. Cloudy and unpleasant. We saw 2 right whales and lowered twice for them. They were so shy that we could do nothing with them. It seems that we never are to get another whale. This is unpleasant indeed. No observation.
